

Leamington Primary History Knowledge Organiser Year 1

Old and New Toys - How have toys changed over the years?

What I should already know	What I will learn	Important words to help me. (vocabulary)	Skills and Historical Enquiry
* Share what they know about toys they had when they were younger in comparison to the toys they play with now.	What are the main differences between old and new toys? Old toys were typically hand made. They were often made from wood, metal, plain fabrics and natural materials. Now there are a wide variety of toys made from many different materials such as plastic, metal, wood, bright fabrics etc. Most toys are now made in factory and are typically made from plastic. A lot of toys are electronic or are powered by batteries.	<table border="1"> <tr> <td>Long time ago</td> <td>Far in the past: not at all recently, It happened a long time ago.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Decades</td> <td>A period of 10 years.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Now</td> <td>At the present time or moment.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Then</td> <td>Then means at a particular time in the past.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Timeline</td> <td>A graphical representation of a period of time, on which important events are marked.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>X years ago</td> <td>You use ago when you are referring to past time.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Invention</td> <td>Something, typically a process or device that has been invented.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Similar</td> <td>Having a resemblance in appearance, character, or quantity, without being identical.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Different</td> <td>Not the same as another or each other; unlike in nature, form, or quality.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Victorian</td> <td>A person who lived during the Victorian period.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Century</td> <td>A period of one hundred years.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Ancient</td> <td>Belonging to the very distant past and no longer in existence.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Modern</td> <td>Relating to the present or recent times as opposed to the remote past.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Past</td> <td>Gone by in time and no longer existing.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Present</td> <td>Existing or occurring now.</td> </tr> </table>	Long time ago	Far in the past: not at all recently, It happened a long time ago.	Decades	A period of 10 years.	Now	At the present time or moment.	Then	Then means at a particular time in the past.	Timeline	A graphical representation of a period of time, on which important events are marked.	X years ago	You use ago when you are referring to past time.	Invention	Something, typically a process or device that has been invented.	Similar	Having a resemblance in appearance, character, or quantity, without being identical.	Different	Not the same as another or each other; unlike in nature, form, or quality.	Victorian	A person who lived during the Victorian period.	Century	A period of one hundred years.	Ancient	Belonging to the very distant past and no longer in existence.	Modern	Relating to the present or recent times as opposed to the remote past.	Past	Gone by in time and no longer existing.	Present	Existing or occurring now.	Sequence events that have occurred in their lifetime. Investigate how toys have changed over the years. Use common words and phrases relating to the passing of time. Share how you have found out about toys from the Victorian era. Describe some simple similarities and differences between artefacts. Recognising the difference between past and present in their own lives and the lives of others.
Long time ago	Far in the past: not at all recently, It happened a long time ago.
Decades	A period of 10 years.
Now	At the present time or moment.
Then	Then means at a particular time in the past.
Timeline	A graphical representation of a period of time, on which important events are marked.
X years ago	You use ago when you are referring to past time.
Invention	Something, typically a process or device that has been invented.
Similar	Having a resemblance in appearance, character, or quantity, without being identical.
Different	Not the same as another or each other; unlike in nature, form, or quality.
Victorian	A person who lived during the Victorian period.
Century	A period of one hundred years.
Ancient	Belonging to the very distant past and no longer in existence.
Modern	Relating to the present or recent times as opposed to the remote past.
Past	Gone by in time and no longer existing.
Present	Existing or occurring now.
Interesting Facts	How have toys changed over time? Many toys from the Victorian era are still very popular today. However, they are typically made from different materials. For example toys cars were once made from metal and could be wound up using a key. Now toy cars are usually made from plastic and are often electronic. How do dates help me to order toys in chronological order? Many popular toys were first made many years ago; dates help us to place them in chronological order.
Many toys from the Victorian era are still very popular today. Many toys today are very similar to toys from the past but are now made from a wide variety of materials and in large factories. The oldest known doll is 4000 years old. The five most famous toys in the world are; Lego, Barbie, Cabbage Patch Dolls, Rubiks Cube and Hot Wheels.																																	